ABOUT CHILD DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE

Child Development Institute (CDI) is a leading children's mental health agency in the City of Toronto offering a range of services to approximately 3,000 children ages 0-2, youth ages 13-18 and their families each year. Our mission is to promote and support the healthy development of children and to strengthen the families and communities in which they live. We provide four streams of service to families in need: early intervention, family violence, healthy child development and specialized mental health services for children and youth with learning disabilities.

POSITION SUMMARY

Child Development Institute is seeking female Child and Family Clinician to work within their Family Violence Services. The primary role of this position is to facilitate all aspects of Mothers in Mind (MIM), a trauma-informed, mother-child therapeutic group program specifically designed to support infants and toddlers whose mothers have been impacted by interpersonal trauma. The Child and Family Clinician will work in all three versions of MIM: 1) community based MIM, 2) MIM Co-Location Model at the Children's Aid Society of Toronto and 3) drop-in version of the program at our local partner shelters.

As a part of this position, clinicians may also be involved other aspects of Family Violence Services including facilitating the Here to Help program, a group intervention program for mothers and children ages 4 to 18 who have experienced family violence.

The incumbent will be required to work 1-2 evenings per week and to travel to program locations across Toronto. Here to Help involvement requires Thursday evening work.

The position involves providing intake, assessment, counselling (individual/mother-child/group) and follow up services to the mothers and their children. Interventions address the impact of trauma on children, mothers and the mother-child relationship. The successful candidate is a reflective practitioner who is interested and passionate about work with infants, toddlers and their mothers.

Priority will be given to those applicants who speak a second language other than French.
